

Sympathy Flower Guide

Casket Sprays: Placed on the lid of the casket. Lib spray (for full casket) or foot spray (for half-open caskets). This is usually sent by the immediate family.

Casket Adornments: Traditionally sent by the immediate family (the ones who make the funeral arrangements). Includes floral pillows, hearts, crosses, rosaries, posies/bouquets, sheafs.

Pillows: Satin pillows with flowers. Usually given by the immediate family.

Hearts: Made with satin or fresh flowers. Usually given by the immediate family.

Crosses: Made with satin or fresh flowers. Usually given by the immediate family to symbolize faith.

Rosaries: Floral rosaries with a cross. Symbolizes spirituality. Usually given by the immediate family.

Posies/Bouquets: Small floral arrangements. Usually given by the immediate family.

Sheafs: A bundle of several floral items tied together with straw or twine. Usually sent by the family.

Cremation Urn Designs: Floral arrangements that decorate the urn. Appropriate for the home or service.

Easel/Standing Sprays: A perfect way to express your sympathy to the family at the funeral or memorial service.

Sympathy Tributes: A one-sided floral arrangement appropriate to send to the funeral home or memorial service.

Sympathy Wreaths/Crosses/Hearts: Personalized wreath designs that symbolize eternal life, religion, special remembrances, or personal affiliations. For the funeral or memorial service.

Floral Baskets: A basket of abundant flowers. Thoughtful selection for the home or service.

Sympathy Arrangements: Vase or basket arrangements are appropriate for the home or service and can be designed to fit any budget. Can be sent months after the service.

Dish Gardens and Plants: A garden-style collection of green and blooming plants delivered to the home.

Gift Baskets: Fruit and gourmet baskets can be sent to the grieving family's home by anyone as a thoughtful gesture.

For more sympathy and funeral flowers please visit our website at www.fundflowers.com/sympathy

FundFlowers.com : sales@fundflowers.com : 1-877-883-GIFT (4438)